

Internet Mystery Hunt Answers

- #1. “The Victorian House on Richard Street in Bedford Borough is painted pink.”
- #2. “Tecumseh was the name of the largest tannery in the Borough of Everett.”
- #3. “Blue Knob in the Allegheny Mountain was once believed to be the highest point in Pennsylvania.”
- #4. “There were eight different mineral springs around which the Bedford Springs resort was developed.”
- #5. “The Log Church just west of Schellsburg is the oldest church still standing in the county.”
- #6. “The ‘Broad Top’ is a plateau of relatively flat-lying rocks in the northeast corner of Bedford County (extending into Huntingdon and Fulton Counties) bearing bituminous coal.”
- #7. “The periglacial boulder fields covering the hillsides forming Loysburg Gap were the result of permafrost ice wedging in which the solid rocks continuously froze and expanded.”
- #8. “The first Bedford County court house was constructed of logs, the second of stone and the third of brick.”
- #9. “When he brought Virginia troops to participate in the Forbes Expedition in 1758, George Washington was a Colonel, and subordinate to the British officers.”
- #10. “The town of Clarksburg was intended to be laid out on the summit of Dry Ridge with its center where the Metzger Tavern stands.”